LAMBERT'S POINT.

The regular weekly meeting of the W. C. T. U. was held at the residence of Mrs. McCauley, corner of Pocahontas avenue and Bowden's Ferry road, at 3:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon, and was largely attended. Encouraging reports were received from the superintendents of the several departments of work. The Committee on Entertaining the District Union reported $12 as the receipts from the luncheon served. The Union will meet next Thursday evening at 8 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Newcomer, on Lawrence avenue.

Mr. Peyton Rice, who has been very ill at the home of Mrs. Lula A. Poague, on Lawrence avenue, was reported slightly improved yesterday afternoon, though still very sick.

Henry Durham, a youth in the employ of the Powhatan Manufacturing Company, while at work there yesterday had one of his hands badly lacerated by its being caught in the carding machine while it was in motion. His wound was promptly dressed, after which he was sent to his home.

The Lambert's Point baseball team will cross bats with the Athletics of Portsmouth on the grounds of the former Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock. Both clubs are in fine trim for playing.

Ground was broken yesterday on Forty-second street for the erection of a new frame dwelling for Mr. Carter. The contract for building it was given out by Myers & Kellam.

The brickmasons finished yesterday the brick settings for the boilers of the power house of the Atlantic Terminal Company. The carpenters are rushing the work on the interior of the building. It will be ready to begin operations very soon.

The beautiful country residence of the late John Neely, near Edgewater, has been purchased by Mr. Pohn Graham, of Wilkesbarre, Pa., who is now occupying it with his family. He has added many improvements to the place, and it is now one of the most attractive suburban homes in this section.

Seven of the cars for the Atlantic Terminal Company have arrived here. They are very handsome and are an improvement on any that have been in use in this section.

The pier and floating dock at Sewell's Point are nearly finished.

Mr. George Claiborne, of Rappahannock avenue, met with a painful accident while at work at the Indian Pole bridge in Norfolk county Thursday afternoon. He was engaged in trimming piles for the structure, when his ax slipped from his grasp, splitting the small toe to his right foot its entire length. He will be disabled for some days.

A fashionable ball will be given by the Pioneer Fire and Salvage Company at its assembly room on Thirty-sixth street from 8 to 12 o'clock to-night. A fine band of music has been engaged for the occasion, and the mazes of the dance will be one of the attractions. The interior of the building has been handsomely decorated with flags and bunting in commemoration of the event.

Rev. W. C. Vaden delivered his humorous and entertaining lecture on "Grit and Gumption" before an appreciative audience at the Methodist Church last night.

Mr. J. S. Long and family, formerly of Atlantic City Ward, have moved here and are residing on Cecelia avenue.

STORY OF A GOOD CIGAR.

POPULAR NORFOLK RAILWAY MAN TELLS A GOOD STORY AT RICHMOND.

The Richmond Dispatch of yesterday has the following:

"Have a cigar?" said Mr. Arthur G. Lewis, the genial southern passenger agent of the Baltimore and Ohio at Murphy's last night, handing the reporter a fine-looking weed as he spoke. The reporter observed an excellent portrait of Mr. Lewis on the label, which caused the latter to tell a story.

"Some time ago I was at the rooms of a well-known club in another city," said Mr. Lewis. "An incident arose which caused very hard words, and finally brought a charge that one of the participants in the difficulty was guilty of conduct unbecoming a gentleman. It looked like there would be a most serious trouble. I undertook to settle it, if possible.

"Gentlemen," I said, "I beg of you to discuss this subject no further now. Let's each smoke a cigar, and then talk it over. The influence of a good cigar soothes out the hottest, sweetest sentiments in human nature."

"My proposition was assented to. Every one of us, save two, lighted a good cigar. Each man drew away for five minutes or more. Then I broached the subject quietly. Others took it up in the same way. In a few minutes the matter was settled to the absolute satisfaction of every one present, save two. They were the men who didn't smoke. A firm of cigar manufacturers heard of the incident, and hence these cigars. Like it?"

It was all right.
The cigar spoken of above is a choice brand known as "The Poet Laureate," in honor of Mr. Arthur F. Lewis, who is attaining wide fame by his poems and "Sub Ends of Thought." The brand on the cigar bears an excellent picture of Mr. Lewis.

No change of advertisement will be guaranteed in our Sunday paper if copy is sent later than this hour. ## T. H. FAGAN GOES FREE

His Partner Plead Guilty and Got a Year in the Pen.

The Evidence Against Both Was Practically the Same—James Butts Found Guilty—Nolle Prosequed—Plaintiff Given One Cent Damages and Costs.

S. W. Smith, the Newport News counterfeiter, who on Wednesday plead guilty in the United States Court, is probably sorry that he did so now. His partner, Thomas H. Fagan, who was indicted with him, went on trial yesterday and was acquitted by the jury. There was practically the same evidence against both.

Judge Waddill yesterday passed sentence upon Smith, giving him one year and one day in the Moundsville, W. Va., jail and fining him $50 and costs. The two were indicted for making and circulating bogus coin.

THE MITCHELL CASE.

The case of John Mitchell, of Newport News, indicted for forging a money order for $10, was placed on trial, but the prisoner's counsel, Mr. R. S. Thorpe, secured a continuance until to-day because of the absence of some papers.

NOT GUILTY—NOLLE PROSEQUIED

James Butts, colored, was tried by the jury in the United States Court yesterday on the charge of robbing the postoffice at Pretlow's, in Southampton county. He was found not guilty, and the indictment against Alfred Boyd, who was indicted with him, was nolle prosequed.

Charles Lipscomb was granted a discharge in bankruptcy.

GIVEN ONE CENT DAMAGES AND COSTS.

The suit of Moses G. Nusbaum against Sylvanus Stokes, lessee of the Monticello Hotel, for $1,000 damages for alleged breach of contract, was tried in the Court of Law and Chancery yesterday. The jury allowed the plaintiff one cent damages and costs.

BIG DAMAGE SUIT.

Mr. W. G. Pilkington has been retained by Messrs. A. Wrenn & Sons as their counsel in the damage suit brought against them for $20,000 by W. H. Davis, in the Court of Law and Chancery. Davis was hurt in an elevator accident at the big carriage factory of Wrenn & Sons, where he was employed.

VAIDEN ACCUSED AGAIN.

B. F. Vaiden, colored, who was indicted for fraudulently obtaining money by the Corporation Court Grand jury Monday, was in the Police Court on a similar charge yesterday morning. He was acquitted. Vaiden has been in court many times. He runs a colored employment bureau.

Ed Blankinship, an incorrigible; held until to-day.

Laura Lee and Beulah Poole, both colored, fighting; fined $3 each.
William Lacart, assaulting F. B. Biggs; continued until to-day.
Joe Breton, colored, carrying a concealed pistol; fined $25.
William B. Clark, suspected of stealing a watch; continued until to-day.
Ethel McFadden, abusing Flossie Jones; fined $3.00.

Taken to Newport News.

Deputy Marshal West yesterday afternoon took Smith, the convicted counterfeiter, and two other United States prisoners to the jail at Newport News, from where they will be sent to the penitentiary.

George Evans, the former Newport News clerk, who plead guilty and was sentenced to a year in the penitentiary at Moundsville, W. Va., is in a bad condition physically, and his counsel, Mr. Hugh G. Miller, will ask Judge Waddill to suspend execution of the sentence or endorse an application for his pardon to be made to President McKinley.

Qualities and Values of the Foremost and Best Character.

BURK & CO.

The Big Store's great stock consists of anything and everything that good taste, reasonable demands and reasonable expenditure could ask, expect or obtain in Spring and Summer wearables for Men, Boy or Child—even the broad and comprehensive statement is susceptible of immediate and satisfactory proof when there is confronted for examination and approval such a wonderful totality of novelties and such an abundance of staples as are now shown in the various departments in the two big buildings—quality here ever governs and controls the purchasing value—and, in turn, regulates and becomes the ruling incentive for worth in selling—there is one thing absolutely certain when the quality is equal elsewhere the price is higher—when the price is equal the quality is lower—it pays to trade directly with the makers—secure better value—save middlemen's margins—get better service—better workmanship—better results and better all round returns than can be had from any other source.

Better Goods for Same Money—

Same Goods for Less Money.

$9.85

When qualities are similar elsewhere prices are higher—when prices are similar qualities are lower—that's the substance that confronts the situation regarding the goods on sale here—people that have scanned the market closely—people that know real worth and value—those that have sought to make their money secure the best possible power that their judgment would guide—have bought these Nine Eighty-five Special Value Bargain Suits for Men and Young Men, saying that they are the best and biggest values yet offered—there is nothing necessary to say in this connection except this: That these Suits, by reason of an extensive business which has been transacted since the first day the sale had been put into active operation, will naturally dwindle in scales, and the best opportunity for a more satisfactory selection is lost unless an immediate or prompt response is made, and, moreover, we can unhesitatingly say there never were and probably never will be again such extraordinary quotations made on such good Suits, or such low figures as Nine Eighty-five.
